

Imagine mummy's surprise when we dropped in after 4600 years.

When archeologists chose Scott to sample the ancient air in the royal barge's sealed chamber, it didn't surprise anyone else.

Scott has supplied specialty gases and equipment for every application on earth, everywhere on earth.

High accuracy calibration standards gases. Custom blends and gas delivery systems. Parts per trillion mixtures and ultra pures. And we have always supplied them quickly. Overnight, if needed.

About that ancient air sample. It was a perfect match for the air over Cairo. Seems the royal barge chamber had sprung a leak between 2600BC and the day we paid our little visit.
